

Chinmaya Mission Tri State Center

Our gurus – Gurudev, Guriji and Swamiji – helped in establishing this wonderful Chinmaya organization and with your collective support Chinmaya Vrindavan has become a reality today. Pujya Gurudev in his immense wisdom gave us a simple motto “To give maximum happiness to the maximum number for the maximum time”. Everything that we do in the Temple, Balavihar Classes, Adult Study groups and Seva projects is directed towards this goal. To sustain this environment and tradition for us and the next generation we need support from dedicated families like yours.

Chinmaya Parivar is a joint family of the members of Chinmaya Mission created with a vision to enhance and promote the objective of the Chinmaya Mission. Joint family has been a cornerstone of Indian culture. They are the first training grounds for interpersonal skills, to learn lessons of patience, tolerance, cooperation and adjustment.

Chinmaya Parivar will provide a forum for all members to practice our pledge to

- Stand as one family
- Serve as an army
- Live honestly
- Seek the Lord’s grace
- Service to the society and country
- Fulfill our responsibilities

Chinmaya Vrindavan requests you to register as a 'Chinmaya Parivar' member.

The Chinmaya Parivar membership includes Balavihar fees for all the children in the household and it has some other unique ways of saying thank you.

- Rudrabhisekham performed on your and family member’s names on their birthdays.
- On a regular basis receive prasad from important rituals performed at Vrindavan ashram
- Receive token gift with Swamiji’s blessings on special festival occasions
- Receive discounts on most paid programs conducted at the ashram

We invite you to join the Chinmaya Parivar Family in support of Chinmaya Vrindavan.*
